

Auctioneer's License

- The applicant needs to complete an application. (see form)
- If the applicant resides in a state other than Minnesota, the applicant needs to also complete the Application with Irrevocable Consent. (see form)
- If the applicant resides in a state other than Minnesota, the applicant needs to also provide a letter from their county attorney stating that their state has no auctioneer laws (Iowa is one example). If the state does have auctioneer laws we do need to have a certified copy of their regulations and a certified copy of their auctioneers license from that state.
- The applicant needs to obtain an original bond. The bond should be for $1000.00. The bond should go for a one-year period from date of bond to one year out. Auctioneer's Licenses are renewed annually but do not go from a specific date to a specific date. The auctioneer may license when he or she wishes for one year.
- Verify the bond is appropriately signed and notarized.
- Verify the dates on the bond.
- Fill out a Worker's Comp form. (see form)
- $20.00 for the license fee.
